

At OMNISEC,
 our people have an inherent ability to protect and serve, along with an innate drive to plan and solve complex problems. Our intensive screening process is where it all starts—since we only recruit those with high-level skills.

Yet, it takes more than just great intuition and talent to become an OMNISEC employee. Our core values of integrity and moral principles are instilled into each trainee, every step of the way. So, only those with the strongest ethics get to wear our uniforms.

Altogether, our professionals have made OMNISEC a benchmark of the security industry. Count on us to protect your physical operations, equipment, and people, not to mention your valuable public image. In the end you, too, will have a greater sense of security.

RIGHT PEOPLE.
 RIGHT VALUES.®

More than just words to us, our slogan is exemplified by our employees' actions every day, for every client.

Since our beginning in 1990, we have grown to be one of the largest minority-owned companies in the nation, built on our principles.

That's why we can help assess potential risks—and discern the most cost-effective solution for a complete security system.
 Below are some of the programs we offer to the government and private sectors:

- Background investigations
- White collar crimes investigations
- Fraud investigations
- Security assessments and surveys

Exceptional Insight

We are serious about who we hire. Fortunately our staff recruiters are thorough, and have a keen eye for quality people. In our screening process, we ensure that only the best candidates with impeccable backgrounds get to work for you.

From there, our stellar recruits are put through a stringent training regimen, originally developed by founder and CEO Julien Patterson—a veteran of the CIA. This further ensures that only the very best get to serve you.

Our intrinsic talents have earned us the privilege to protect high-level corporate and government facilities and personnel. We guard such valuable and secure installations with a reliable work ethic and friendly touch. Hire us once, and you will see how advanced protection is simply our second nature.
